oth-er feet have trod; Un-bound I'll take my how a noi-some world The beau-ty of each hand in hand with doubt; My bur-dens lift-ed, is a world to feed; Pri-vat-ions met and one who went be-fore Yet walks be-side me, mission and re-lease No long-er danc-ing trod; With gown of glo-ry, hope's true gage world Con-trives to keep thesethings from me, doubt; With ev-'ry move I still-ness find, feed; A world that longs for joy and peace, fore Whomarked the way and trod the road lease In gowns of glo-ry, hope dis-played, pil - grim - age, And thus I'll take, I'll take my pil - grim - age.

 stone and tree; The noise and haste all hide these things from me.
 peace of mind; Aff - lict - ions are up - lif - ted, and re - de - fined.
 debt re - leased; Where earth re - veals its trea - sure and con - flicts cease.
 shares my load; Love walks be - fore, be - side me, and shares my load.
 in the shade, Love walks un - seen be - side us, in light ar - rayed.
